

JICC OKINAWA WEEK

PRESENTED BY THE OKINAWA PREFECTURAL GOVERNMENT

At the Japan Information and Culture Center, Embassy of Japan

September 2 ~ 12, 2014

Co-Creation Towards Tomorrow
OKINAWA PREFECTURAL GOVERNMENT

The Okinawa Prefectural Government will host a variety of exciting events at the JICC where you can learn about the culture and history of beautiful Okinawa. Events will include a ten-day art exhibit using panels to display scenes of Okinawa, a cocktail night featuring authentic Okinawan liquor called "Awamori", and several short films set in Okinawa.

September 2 ~ 12

OKINAWA DISPLAY PANEL

Exhibit of scenes from Okinawa

September 2

OKINAWA SHORT FILM NIGHT

A series of films allow you to experience Okinawan history and culture firsthand!

• SHORT FILM SERIES 6 : 40 PM ~

“ Indigo Love ”

“ The Path of KUMIODORI ”

“ Mother of the Groom ”

AWAMORI COCKTAIL NIGHT 6:00PM ~

Delicious Okinawan Awamori-based cocktails will be served free of charge to guests 21 and older.

September 3

AWAMORI COCKTAIL NIGHT

Experience the beauty and flavors of Okinawa!

AWAMORI COCKTAILS SERVED FROM 6:00PM

OKINAWAN MOVIE “Karakara” 6:40PM ~

A Karakara is a traditional container for Awamori

September 5, 9, and 10

OKINAWA MOVIE NIGHT 6:15PM ~

September 5: “ Nabbie’s Love ”

September 9: “ GOAT-WALKING ” “The Deer in Me” “The Path of KUMIODORI”

September 10: “ Uminchu The Old Man and the East China Sea ”

カラカラ Karakara

All events are free and open to the public, but you must register for films in advance.

For more details, please visit:

<http://www.us.emb-japan.go.jp/jicc/>

Movies Supported by OCVB Okinawa Film Office