ARTICLE I OFFICES

Section 1.01 Offices. The address of the registered office of Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. (hereinafter called the "Corporation") in the District of Columbia shall be Corporate Services Company, 1100 New York Avenue, NW, West Tower, Suite 500, Washington, DC, 20005. The Corporation may have other offices, both within and without the District of Columbia, as the board of directors of the Corporation (the "Board of Directors") from time to time shall determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

Section 1.02 Books and Records. Any records maintained by the Corporation in the regular course of its business, including its stock ledger, books of account and minute books, may be maintained on any information storage device or method; provided that the records so kept can be converted into clearly legible paper form within a reasonable time. The Corporation shall so convert any records so kept upon the request of any person entitled to inspect such records pursuant to applicable law.

ARTICLE II MEETINGS OF THE STOCKHOLDERS

Section 2.01 Place of Meetings. All meetings of the stockholders shall be held at such place, if any, either within or without the District of Columbia, as shall be designated from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of meeting.

Section 2.02 Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting shall be held at such date, time and place, if any, as shall be determined by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting.

Section 2.03 Special Meetings. Special meetings of stockholders for any purpose or purposes shall be called pursuant to a resolution approved by the Board of Directors and may not be called by any other person or persons. The only business which may be conducted at a special meeting shall be the matter or matters set forth in the notice of such meeting.

Section 2.04 Adjournments. Any meeting of the stockholders, annual or special, may be adjourned from time to time to reconvene at the same or some other place, if any, and notice need not be given of any such adjourned meeting if the time, place, if any, thereof and the means of remote communication, if any, are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the adjourned meeting, the Corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than 30 days, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting. If after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for stockholders entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting, the Board of Directors shall fix a new record date for notice of the adjourned meeting and shall give notice of the adjourned meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting as of the record date fixed for notice of the adjourned meeting.

Section 2.05 Notice of Meetings. Notice of the place, if any, date, hour, the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting (if such date is different from the record date for stockholders entitled to notice of the meeting) and means of remote communication, if any, of every meeting of stockholders shall be given by the Corporation not less than ten days nor more than 60 days before the meeting (unless a different time is specified by law) to every stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting as of the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of the meeting. Notices of special meetings shall also specify the purpose or purposes for which the meeting has been called. Except as otherwise provided herein or permitted by applicable law, notice to stockholders shall be in writing and delivered personally or mailed to the stockholders at their address appearing on the books of the Corporation. Without limiting the manner by which notice otherwise may be given effectively to stockholders, notice of meetings may be given to stockholders by means of electronic transmission in accordance with applicable law. Notice of any meeting need not be given to any stockholder who shall, either before or after the meeting, submit a waiver of notice or who shall attend such meeting, except when the stockholder attends for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Any stockholder so waiving notice of the meeting shall be bound by the proceedings of the meeting in all respects as if due notice thereof had been given.

Section 2.06 List of Stockholders. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger shall prepare a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders (provided, however, if the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote is less than ten days before the date of the meeting, the list shall reflect the stockholders entitled to vote as of the tenth day before the meeting date), arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares of each class of capital stock of the Corporation registered in the name of each stockholder at least ten days before any meeting of the stockholders. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, on a reasonably accessible electronic network if the information required to gain access to such list was provided with the notice of the meeting or during ordinary business hours, at the principal place of business of the Corporation for a period of at least ten days before the meeting. If the meeting is to be held at a place, the list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting the whole time thereof and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present. If the meeting is held solely by means of remote communication, the list shall also be open for inspection by any stockholder during the whole time of the meeting as provided by applicable law. Except as provided by applicable law, the stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger and the list of stockholders or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 2.07 Quorum. Unless otherwise required by law, the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation (the "Certificate of Incorporation") or these by-laws, at each meeting of the stockholders, a majority in voting power of the shares of the Corporation entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power, by the affirmative vote of a majority in voting power thereof, to adjourn the meeting from time to time, in the manner provided in Section 2.04, until a quorum shall be present or represented. A quorum, once established, shall not be broken by the subsequent withdrawal of enough votes to leave less than a quorum. At any such adjourned meeting at which there is a quorum, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

Section 2.08 Conduct of Meetings. The Board of Directors may adopt by resolution such rules and regulations for the conduct of the meeting of the stockholders as it shall deem appropriate. At every meeting of the stockholders, the President, or in his or her absence or inability to act, the Vice President shall act as chairman of, and preside at, the meeting. The secretary or, in his or her absence or inability to act, the person whom the chairman of the meeting shall appoint secretary of the meeting, shall act as secretary of the meeting and keep the minutes thereof. Except to the extent inconsistent with such rules and regulations as adopted by the Board of Directors, the chairman of any meeting of the stockholders shall have the right and authority to prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and to do all such acts as, in the judgment of such chairman, are appropriate for the proper conduct of the meeting. Such rules, regulations or procedures, whether adopted by the Board of Directors or prescribed by the chairman of the meeting, may include, without limitation, the following: (a) the establishment of an agenda or order of business for the meeting; (b) the determination of when the polls shall open and close for any given matter to be voted on at the meeting; (c) rules and procedures for maintaining order at the meeting and the safety of those present; (d) limitations on attendance at or participation in the meeting to stockholders of record of the corporation, their duly authorized and constituted proxies or such other persons as the chairman of the meeting shall determine; (e) restrictions on entry to the meeting after the time fixed for the commencement thereof; and (f) limitations on the time allotted to questions or comments by participants.

Section 2.09 Voting; Proxies. Unless otherwise required by law or the Certificate of Incorporation the election of directors shall be decided by a plurality of the votes cast at a meeting of the stockholders by the holders of stock entitled to vote in the election. Unless otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these by-laws, any matter, other than the election of directors, brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the affirmative vote of the majority of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the matter. Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for such stockholder by proxy, but no such proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period. A proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only as long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power. A stockholder may revoke any proxy which is not irrevocable by attending the meeting and voting in person or by delivering to the secretary of the Corporation a revocation of the proxy or a new proxy bearing a later date. Voting at meetings of stockholders need not be by written ballot.

Section 2.10 Inspectors at Meetings of Stockholders. The Board of Directors, in advance of any meeting of stockholders, may, and shall if required by law, appoint one or more inspectors, who may be employees of the Corporation, to act at the meeting or any adjournment thereof and make a written report thereof. The Board of Directors may designate one or more persons as alternate inspectors to replace any inspector who fails to act. If no inspector or alternate is able to act at a meeting, the person presiding at the meeting shall appoint one or more inspectors to act at the meeting. Each inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his or her duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his or her ability. The inspectors shall (a) ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each, (b) determine the shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum and the validity of proxies and ballots, (c) count all votes and ballots, (d) determine and retain for a reasonable period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors and (e) certify their determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting and their count of all votes and ballots. The inspectors may appoint or retain other persons or entities to assist the inspectors in the performance of their duties. Unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors, the date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the stockholders will vote at a meeting shall be announced at the meeting. No ballot, proxies, votes or any revocation thereof or change thereto, shall be accepted by the inspectors after the closing of the polls unless the Court of Chancery of the District of Columbia upon application by a stockholder shall determine otherwise. In determining the validity and counting of proxies and ballots cast at any meeting of stockholders, the inspectors may consider such information as is permitted by applicable law. No person who is a candidate for office at an election may serve as an inspector at such election.

Section 2.11 Written Consent of Stockholders Without a Meeting. Any action to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action to be so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered (by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested) to the Corporation by delivery to its registered office in the District of Columbia, its principal place of business or an officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded. Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each stockholder who signs the consent, and no written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within 60 days of the earliest dated consent delivered in the manner required by this Section 2.11, written consents signed by a sufficient number of holders to take action are delivered to the Corporation as aforesaid. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall, to the extent required by applicable law, be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing, and who, if the action had been taken at a meeting, would have been entitled to notice of the meeting if the record date for notice of such meeting had been the date that written consents signed by a sufficient number of holders to take the action were delivered to the Corporation.

Section 2.12 Fixing the Record Date.

(a) In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, and which record date shall not be more than 60 nor less than ten days before the date of such meeting. If the Board of Directors so fixes a date, such date shall also be the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting unless the Board of Directors determines, at the time it fixes such record date, that a later date on or before the date of the meeting shall be the date for making such determination. If no record date is fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting and in such case shall also fix as the record date for stockholders entitled to notice of such adjourned meeting the same or an earlier date as that fixed for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote therewith at the adjourned meeting.

(b) In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, and which record date shall not be more than ten days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors. If no record date has been fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting: (i) when no prior action by the Board of Directors is required by law, the record date for such purpose shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the Corporation by delivery (by hand, or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested) to its registered office in the District of Columbia, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded and (ii) if prior action by the Board of Directors is required by law, the record date for such purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution taking such prior action.

(c) In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights or the stockholders entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted, and which record date shall be not more than 60 days prior to such action. If no record date is fixed, the record date for determining stockholders for any such purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating thereto.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 3.01 General Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may adopt such rules and procedures, not inconsistent with the Certificate of Incorporation, these by-laws or applicable law, as it may deem proper for the conduct of its meetings and the management of the Corporation.

Section 3.02 Number; Term of Office. The Board of Directors shall consist of two (2) members. Each director shall hold office until a successor is duly elected and qualified or until the director's earlier death, resignation, disqualification or removal.

Section 3.03 Newly Created Directorships and Vacancies. Any newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors and any vacancies occurring in the Board of Directors, [may/shall] be filled [solely] by the affirmative votes of a majority of the remaining members of the Board of Directors, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. A director so elected shall be elected to hold office until the earlier of the expiration of the term of office of the director whom he or she has replaced, a successor is duly elected and qualified or the earlier of such director's death, resignation or removal.

Section 3.04 Resignation. Any director may resign at any time by notice given in writing or by electronic transmission to the Corporation. Such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice by the Corporation or at such later time as is therein specified.

Section 3.05 Removal. Except as prohibited by applicable law or the Certificate of Incorporation, the stockholders entitled to vote in an election of directors may remove any director from office at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority in voting power thereof.

Section 3.06 Fees and Expenses. Directors shall receive such fees and expenses as the Board of Directors shall from time to time prescribe.

Section 3.07 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such times and at such places as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors or its chairman.

Section 3.08 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such times and at such places as may be determined by the chairman or the President on at least 24 hours notice to each director given by one of the means specified in Section 3.11 hereof other than by mail or on at least three days notice if given by mail. Special meetings shall be called by the chairman or the President in like manner and on like notice on the written request of any two or more directors.

Section 3.09 Telephone Meetings. Board of Directors or Board of Directors committee meetings may be held by means of telephone conference or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other and be heard. Participation by a director in a meeting pursuant to this Section 3.09 shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 3.10 Adjourned Meetings. A majority of the directors present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, including an adjourned meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn and reconvene such meeting to another time and place. At least 24 hours notice of any adjourned meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director whether or not present at the time of the adjournment, if such notice shall be given by one of the means specified in Section 3.11 hereof other than by mail, or at least three days notice if by mail. Any business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting that might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called.

Section 3.11 Notices. Subject to Section 3.08, Section 3.10 and Section 3.12 hereof, whenever notice is required to be given to any director by applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these by-laws, such notice shall be deemed given effectively if given in person or by telephone, mail addressed to such director at such director's address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, facsimile, e-mail or by other means of electronic transmission.

Section 3.12 Waiver of Notice. Whenever notice to directors is required by applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these by-laws, a waiver thereof, in writing signed by, or by electronic transmission by, the director entitled to the notice, whether before or after such notice is required, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance by a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except when the director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special Board of Directors or committee meeting need be specified in any waiver of notice.

Section 3.13 Organization. At each meeting of the Board of Directors, the chairman or, in his or her absence, another director selected by the Board of Directors shall preside. The secretary shall act as secretary at each meeting of the Board of Directors. If the secretary is absent from any meeting of the Board of Directors, an assistant secretary shall perform the duties of secretary at such meeting; and in the absence from any such meeting of the secretary and all assistant secretaries, the person presiding at the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting.

Section 3.14 Quorum of Directors. The presence of a majority of the Board of Directors shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 3.15 Action By Majority Vote. Except as otherwise expressly required by these by-laws, the Certificate of Incorporation or by applicable law, the vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 3.16 Action Without Meeting. Unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation or these by-laws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all directors or members of such committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing or by electronic transmission, and the writings or electronic transmissions are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee in accordance with applicable law.

Section 3.17 Committees of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. If a member of a committee shall be absent from any meeting, or disqualified from voting thereat, the remaining member or members present at the meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not such member or members constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Any such committee, to the extent permitted by applicable law, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation and may authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers that may require it to the extent so authorized by the Board of Directors. Unless the Board of Directors provides otherwise, at all meetings of such committee, a majority of the then authorized members of the committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the vote of a majority of the members of the committee present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the committee. Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings. Unless the Board of Directors provides otherwise, each committee designated by the Board of Directors may make, alter and repeal rules and procedures for the conduct of its business. In the absence of such rules and procedures each committee shall conduct its business in the same manner as the Board of Directors conducts its business pursuant to this Article III.

ARTICLE IV OFFICERS

Section 4.01 Positions and Election. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors and shall include a president, a treasurer and a secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also elect a chairman (who must be a director), one or more vice chairmen (who must be directors) and one or more vice presidents, assistant treasurers, assistant secretaries and other officers. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person.

Section 4.02 Term. Each officer of the Corporation shall hold office until such officer's successor is elected and qualified or until such officer's earlier death, resignation or removal. Any officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors at any time with or without cause by the majority vote of the members of the Board of Directors then in office. The removal of an officer shall be without prejudice to his or her contract rights, if any. The election or appointment of an officer shall not of itself create contract rights. Any officer of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice of his or her resignation to the president or the secretary. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, immediately upon its receipt. Unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Should any vacancy occur among the officers, the position shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by appointment made by the Board of Directors.

Section 4.03 The President. The president shall have general supervision over the business of the Corporation and other duties incident to the office of president, and any other duties as may be from time to time assigned to the president by the Board of Directors and subject to the control of the Board of Directors in each case.

Section 4.04 Vice Presidents. Each vice president shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him or her from time to time by the chairman of the Board of Directors or the president.

Section 4.05 The Secretary. The secretary shall attend all sessions of the Board of Directors and all meetings of the stockholders and record all votes and the minutes of all proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall perform like duties for committees when required. He or she shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or the president. The secretary shall keep in safe custody the seal of the Corporation and have authority to affix the seal to all documents requiring it and attest to the same.

Section 4.06 The Treasurer. The treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities, except as otherwise provided by the Board of Directors, and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the president and the directors, at the regular meetings of the Board of Directors, or whenever they may require it, an account of all his or her transactions as treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

Section 4.07 Duties of Officers May be Delegated. In case any officer is absent, or for any other reason that the Board of Directors may deem sufficient, the president or the Board of Directors may delegate for the time being the powers or duties of such officer to any other officer or to any director.

ARTICLE V

STOCK CERTIFICATES AND THEIR TRANSFER

Section 5.01 Certificates Representing Shares. The shares of stock of the Corporation shall be represented by certificates; provided that the Board of Directors may provide by resolution or resolutions that some or all of any class or series shall be uncertificated shares that may be evidenced by a book-entry system maintained by the registrar of such stock. If shares are represented by certificates, such certificates shall be in the form, other than bearer form, approved by the Board of Directors. The certificates representing shares of stock of each class shall be signed by, or in the name of, the Corporation by the chairman, any vice chairman, the president or any vice president, and by the secretary, any assistant secretary, the treasurer or any assistant treasurer. Any or all such signatures may be facsimiles. Although any officer, transfer agent or registrar whose manual or facsimile signature is affixed to such a certificate ceases to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate has been issued, it may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such officer, transfer agent or registrar were still such at the date of its issue.

Section 5.02 Transfers of Stock. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these by-laws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the holder of record thereof, by such person's attorney lawfully constituted in writing and, in the case of certificated shares, upon the surrender of the certificate thereof, which shall be cancelled before a new certificate or uncertificated shares shall be issued. No transfer of stock shall be valid as against the Corporation for any purpose until it shall have been entered in the stock records of the Corporation by an entry showing from and to whom transferred. To the extent designated by the president or any vice president or the treasurer of the Corporation, the Corporation may recognize the transfer of fractional uncertificated shares, but shall not otherwise be required to recognize the transfer of fractional shares.

Section 5.03 Transfer Agents and Registrars. The Board of Directors may appoint, or authorize any officer or officers to appoint, one or more transfer agents and one or more registrars.

Section 5.04 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. The Board of Directors may direct a new certificate or uncertificated shares to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the owner of the allegedly lost, stolen or destroyed certificate. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate or uncertificated shares, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or the owner's legal representative to give the Corporation a bond sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed or the issuance of such new certificate or uncertificated shares.

ARTICLE VI GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 6.01 Seal. The seal of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

Section 6.02 Checks, Notes, Drafts, Etc. All checks, notes, drafts or other orders for the payment of money of the Corporation shall be signed, endorsed or accepted in the name of the Corporation by such officer, officers, person or persons as from time to time may be designated by the Board of Directors or by an officer or officers authorized by the Board of Directors to make such designation.

Section 6.03 Dividends. Subject to applicable law and the Certificate of Incorporation, dividends upon the shares of capital stock of the Corporation may be declared by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors. Dividends may be paid in cash, in property or in shares of the Corporation's capital stock, unless otherwise provided by applicable law or the Certificate of Incorporation.

Section 6.04 Conflict With Applicable Law or Certificate of Incorporation. These by-laws are adopted subject to any applicable law and the Certificate of Incorporation. Whenever these by-laws may conflict with any applicable law or the Certificate of Incorporation, such conflict shall be resolved in favor of such law or the Certificate of Incorporation.

These by-laws may be amended, altered, changed, adopted and repealed or new by-laws adopted by the Board of Directors. The stockholders may make additional by-laws and may alter and repeal any by laws whether such by-laws were originally adopted by them or otherwise.

Re: Registration No. 6332
Date Filed: 12/23/15
Okinawa Prefectural Government of Japan

Dear Mr. Henzan:

This is in reference to your firm's registration pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq. ("FARA" or "the Act"). A review of the registration documents filed pursuant to the Act reveals that your firm may engage in "political activities" as that term is defined in Section 1(o) of the Act.¹

I direct your attention to Section 4 of the Act, 22 U.S.C. § 614, which outlines the responsibilities of a registrant who disseminates informational materials on behalf of a foreign principal. If a registered agent contacts any agency or official of the Government (including a member or committee of Congress) on behalf of the agent's foreign principal, Section 4(e) of the Act requires that the agent disclose his or her status as a foreign agent and identify his or her foreign principal. Furthermore, Section 4(f) of FARA states, in essence, that whenever a registered agent appears before any committee of Congress to testify for or in the interest of his foreign principal, the agent shall, at the time of the appearance, furnish the committee with a copy of the agent's most recent registration statement filed with this Department for inclusion in the record as part of his testimony.

¹ The term "political activities" means any activity that the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party. 22 U.S.C. § 611(o).

In addition, if an agent disseminates informational materials, by mail or by any means or instrumentality of interstate or foreign commerce, and intends the materials to be disseminated among two or more persons, the agent must adhere to the requirements of Section 4(a) and (b) of the Act. A copy of all informational materials disseminated for or in the interests of a foreign principal must be filed within 48 hours of transmittal,² and must adhere to the statutory labeling requirements, which include the presence of a conspicuous statement on the materials. See 22 U.S.C. §§ 614(a) and (b). The following language must be included in the conspicuous statement in order to comply with Section 4(b) of the Act:

This material is distributed by (name of registrant) on behalf of (name of foreign principal). Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, DC.

When seeking to comply with the requirements of Section 4 of the Act, please note that a personal or organizational website, as well as any social media presence or text message, must also contain a conspicuous label if such media are used as instruments to disseminate informational materials. Acceptable methods for placing a conspicuous label on a website include placing the required language visibly on the home page, as a running header or footer on a website home page, or within a website "About Us" page. Appropriate methods for labeling a social media presence such as Twitter, Facebook, an online forum, or a blog include placing a conspicuous statement on the social media access page of the person's or organization's website, within a Facebook or Twitter profile summary, or on the home page for an online forum or blog. A text message used to disseminate informational materials shall be marked at its beginning with the required label.

A review of your firm's registration reveals that it has not paid the registration fee for its foreign principal, the Okinawa Prefectural Government of Japan. Pursuant to 28 C.F.R. §5.5, the filing fee for an Exhibit A is currently $305.00. Please make every effort to resolve this outstanding balance under invoice number 201624418 (see attached) as soon as possible. Checks should be made payable to the FARA Registration Unit, or you may pay online at www.fara.gov via your FARA eFile account.

² Whenever transmittal of the same item of informational materials is made over a period of time, the registrant may file the materials annually for as long as such transmittal continues. Examples include tourist brochures (no label required), economic development pamphlets, and trade publications.

I have enclosed a copy of the Guidelines for responding to Supplemental Statement Items 11 - 15, and a copy of the Act. If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact Mr. Timothy Pugh of my staff at (202) 233-0776. Any correspondence to this Unit should be addressed to the attention of Mr. Pugh.

Sincerely,

THE FOREIGN PARENT ENTITY- OKINAWA PREFECTURAL GOVERNMENT

Japan's 47 prefectures form the country's first jurisdiction and administrative division levels. They consist of 43 prefectures proper, two urban prefectures (Osaka, and Kyoto), one circuit/territory (Hokkaido) and one metropolis (Tokyo). The Meiji Fuhanken sanchisei administration created the first prefectures to replace the provinces of Japan in 1868.

Okinawa Prefecture is the southernmost prefecture of Japan, comprising approximately 0.6 percent of landmass of Japan with a population of 1.4 million. The Okinawa Prefectural Government currently has six representative offices in Asia including Beijing, Shanghai, Hong Kong in China, Taipei in Taiwan, Singapore and Seoul. All international representative offices manage information gathering, market developments, and business and cultural exchange promotion.

For over the past 72 years, since the end of World War II, Okinawa has been nurturing close ties with the U.S. military. In fact, Okinawa hosts more than 50 percent of the U.S. troops and their family members stationed in Japan. The U.S. population in Japan approaches 80,000. Other than nearly 30,000 active-duty military staff from all four branches of the armed forces, there are also Department of Defense civilians, Department of Defense dependant school teachers and staff, plus U.S. family members. Please refer to the attached documentation for details re: the Okinawa Prefectural Government as well as its relationship with the U.S.

There are approximately 97,000 people from Okinawa Prefecture in the U.S. and approximately 1.4 million Japanese-Americans in the U.S.

Please see the attached documentation for more details about Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. and its regular, systematic, and continuous services.

THE PETITIONER IS A VIABLE BUSINESS AND CAN SUPPORT AN EXECUTIVE POSITION

Incorporated in May, 2015, Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. is fully funded by Okinawa Prefectural Government in Okinawa, Japan. The Beneficiary, Mr. NAKAZATO, will not be performing any non-qualifying, non-executive duties as the Petitioner, Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc., is a viable business and can absolutely support an executive position without requiring Mr. NAKAZATO to perform non-executive duties based on the following facts:

Physical Growth

Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. is located in downtown Washington, DC. Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. currently has two employees (the Beneficiary will be the third employee replacing the current President, Mr. Uechi), seven employees working remotely in Okinawa, Japan, along with outsourced service providers: Washington Core, LLC; PBC 1101 Connecticut Avenue, LLC (dba Carr Workplaces); and Rubino & Company Chartered (formerly known as Jordan Tempchin & Associates, P.C.)

Strong Clientele

Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. has strong clientele. The parent entity, the Okinawa Prefectural Government, has signed a Memorandum of Understanding Regarding a Grant for Establishing the Okinawa Collection (historical documents, important references and books regarding Okinawa donated by the Okinawa Prefectural Government) with The George Washington University (GWU) located in Washington, DC. The Grant was awarded in order to support GWU's efforts to establish, manage and operate the Okinawa Collection. One of the duties of Mr. NAKAZATO is to direct the operation and management of the Okinawa Collection at GWU.

Additionally, Mr. NAKAZATO will direct partnerships with the U.S. stakeholders, especially with the Department of State (DOS) and Department of Defense (DOD), by providing current and up-to-date developments in Okinawa to them to promote mutual understanding of Okinawa's current conditions; We attach an example correspondence from Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc.'s former President to a U.S. senatorial office in Washington, DC indicating its high-level clientele. Meanwhile, Mr. NAKAZATO will also direct the Governor of Okinawa's visits to Washington, DC including participating in the Governor's meetings with the U.S. DOS, U.S. DOD and U.S. Members of Congress.

Mr. NAKAZATO will also direct business opportunities and international trade on a global basis as well as support business to/from Okinawa by sharing expertise to enable successful business development in the U.S. and vice versa. PURPOSE OF THE TRANSFER

Mr. NAKAZATO, currently Section Chief (Outgoing), International Logistics, Asia Economic Strategy Division in Department of Commerce, Industry and Labor, Okinawa Prefectural Government in Japan, is being transferred from the Okinawa Prefectural Government, the Japanese parent, to its U.S. subsidiary, Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. to serve as an executive position of President.

Okinawa Prefecture hosts more than 50 percent of the entire U.S. troops and their family members stationed in Japan. The U.S. population in Japan approaches 80,000. The pros and cons of the U.S. presence in Okinawa have been debated over decades; however, the tension has been growing in the recent years. The most prominent political battle is over the relocation of U.S. Marine Corps Air Station Futenma. About 100,000 people live around the edges of the Futenma Air Station in Ginowan with a university and 19 schools. The rape of a teenage school girl by a U.S. Marine in 1995 intensified local frustrations and an agreement was reached between the Japanese central government and U.S. government to relocate Futenma within Okinawa. But it is a difficult condition for the people of Okinawa as well as its local government (the Okinawa Prefectural Government) to accept such an agreement. The issue of U.S. bases has turned into a confrontation between the Okinawa Prefectural Government and the Japanese central government.

In addition, given its location as the part of Japan closest to the nations of South East Asia, Okinawa has become a venue of international exchange. Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. will promote business opportunities on a global basis as well as support business from Okinawa through the World Uchinanchu Business Association (WUB) by sharing expertise to enable successful business development in the U.S., and vice versa.

As a part of efforts to reach solutions and cooperation as well as promoting business opportunities and international trade between U.S. and Okinawa, the Okinawa Prefectural Government seeks to promote mutual understanding and better relations with the U.S. through Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. in Washington, DC. Thus the Japanese parent, the Okinawa Prefectural Government, has decided to continue to conduct operations in the U.S. with Kazuyuki NAKAZATO as President so that Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. can continue to provide regular, systematic, and continuous services to facilitate government, business, and community relations between Okinawa and its stakeholders in the U.S.

THE U.S. POSITION TO BE HELD BY THE TRANSFEREE

Mr. NAKAZATO will be transferred from the Okinawa Prefectural Government, the Japanese parent of Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc., to fill the position of President. Mr. NAKAZATO will exercise wide latitude in discretionary decision-making to perform the following duties (indicated with percentage of each duty):

- 00% (1) Determine, formulate and act on policy goals set by the Governor of the Okinawa Prefecture and provide overall direction for Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc., in consultation with the Executive Office of the Governor of Okinawa Prefectural Government;

-  (2) Explore and develop new opportunities to expand and enhance political, economic, cultural relations between the U.S. and Okinawa, and where necessary, take executive initiatives on the Governor's behalf;
-  (3) Oversee information gathering regarding new developments in Washington, DC and the U.S. regarding the U.S. military presence in Okinawa and coordinate such developments with the Executive Office of the Governor of the Okinawa Prefectural Government;
-  (4) Direct the Governor of the Okinawa Prefecture's visits to Washington, DC, including participating in the Governor's meetings with the U.S. Department of State (DOS), the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) and U.S. Members of Congress;
-  (5) Direct partnerships with U.S. stakeholders, especially with the U.S. Department of State (DOS) and the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD), by providing current and up-to-date developments in Okinawa Prefecture and promoting mutual understanding of Okinawa Prefecture's current conditions;
-  (6) Establish and maintain cooperative relationships with the media to promote and deliver messages and intentions of the Governor of the Okinawa Prefecture;
-  (7) Determine and formulate the goals and policies and provide overall direction;
-  (8) Direct business opportunities and international trade on a global basis as well as support business to/from Okinawa by sharing expertise to enable successful business development in the U.S., and vice versa. Supervise liaisons with U.S. chapters of the Japan-based World Uchinanchu Business Association (WUB), Japanese expatriates, and Japanese-Americans residing in the U.S. to provide assistance with Okinawa-U.S. trade, tourism and culture business objectives and opportunities;
-  (9) Direct the operation and management of the Okinawa Collection (historical documents, important references and books regarding Okinawa donated by the Okinawa Prefectural Government) at The George Washington University located in Washington, DC;
-  (10) Oversee and direct important events and activities of the Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc.;
-  (11) Direct the Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc.'s financial and budget activities to fund operations and maximize efficiency; and
-  (12) Provide general direction to the Vice President.

Please further see the Business Plan for a detailed discussion of the business strategy of Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. and Mr. NAKAZATO's role in bringing it to fruition.

Based on the above, it is clear that the President is an executive position entailing duties of directing and overseeing many other individuals within as well as outside the Petitioner company (i.e. outsourced providers, support staff stationed in Okinawa, Japan remotely, and individuals working at related entities). Nevertheless, I would like to fortify the "executive" capacity of the President by addressing the following four "executive" criteria:

i. How the Beneficiary will direct the management of the organization, or a major component or function of the organization

The Beneficiary will determine and formulate policies and provide overall direction of company within guidelines set up by a board of directors. The Beneficiary will plan and direct operational activities at the highest level of management with the help of subordinate executives and staff members. The Administrative Associate will provide direct administrative assistance to the President. The Vice President will receive general guidance from the President regarding company policy.

Specifically, the President will perform the following duties: (1) Determine, formulate and act on policy goals set by the Governor of the Okinawa Prefecture and provide overall direction for Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc., in consultation with the Executive Office of the Governor of Okinawa Prefectural Government; (2) Explore and develop new opportunities to expand and enhance political, economic, cultural relations between the U.S. and Okinawa, and where necessary, take executive initiatives on the Governor's behalf; (3) Oversee information gathering regarding new developments in Washington, DC and the U.S. regarding the U.S. military presence in Okinawa and coordinate such developments with the Executive Office of the Governor of the Okinawa Prefectural Government; (4) Direct the Governor of the Okinawa Prefecture's visits to Washington, DC, including participating in the Governor's meetings with the U.S. Department of State (DOS), the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) and U.S. Members of Congress; (5) Direct partnerships with U.S. stakeholders, especially with the U.S. Department of State (DOS) and the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD), by providing current and up-to-date developments in Okinawa Prefecture and promoting mutual understanding of Okinawa Prefecture's current conditions; (6) Establish and maintain cooperative relationships with the media to promote and deliver messages and intentions of the Governor of the Okinawa Prefecture; (7) Determine and formulate the goals and policies and provide overall direction; (8) Direct business opportunities and international trade on a global basis as well as support business to/from Okinawa by sharing expertise to enable successful business development in the U.S., and vice versa. Supervise liaisons with U.S. chapters of the Japan-based World Uchinanchu Business Association (WUB), Japanese expatriates, and Japanese-Americans residing in the U.S. to provide assistance with Okinawa-U.S. trade, tourism and culture business objectives and opportunities; (9) Direct the operation and management of the Okinawa Collection (historical documents, important references and books regarding Okinawa donated by the Okinawa Prefectural Government) at The George Washington University located in Washington, DC; (10) Oversee and direct important events and activities of the Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc.; (11) Direct the Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc.'s financial and budget activities to fund operations and maximize efficiency; and (12) Provide general direction to the Vice President.

All of the above duties are executive and the Beneficiary clearly directs the management of Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc., and its major operations and functions through performing the above executive duties.

ii. How the Beneficiary will establish the goals and policies of the organization, component, or function

Established In May 2015, Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. is fully funded by the Executive Office of the Governor of the Okinawa Prefectural Government. The goal of Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. is to facilitate communications between the Okinawa Prefectural Government and stakeholders in the U.S., to promote deeper understanding and cooperation regarding regional matters including community relations and engagement with the U.S. military bases in Okinawa, and economic and cultural relations between Okinawa and the U.S., as well as to promote business opportunities and international trade between the U.S. and Okinawa.

The Beneficiary, as our President, will direct partnerships with U.S. stakeholders, especially with the U.S. Department of State (DOS) and the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD), by providing to them current and up-to-date developments in Okinawa in order to promote mutual understanding of Okinawa's current condition. The Beneficiary also will direct business opportunities and international trade on a global basis as well as supports business to/from Okinawa by sharing expertise to enable successful business development in the U.S., and vice versa. Furthermore, the Beneficiary will liaise with U.S. chapters of the Japan-based World Uchinanchu Business Association (WUB), Japanese expatriates, and Japanese-Americans residing in the U.S. to provide assistance with Okinawa-U.S. trade, tourism and culture business objectives and opportunities. These major duties, among other duties, clearly demonstrate how the Beneficiary establishes the organization's goals and policies.

iii. How the Beneficiary will exercise wide latitude in discretionary decision-making

The Beneficiary will exercise wide latitude in discretionary decision-making. Mr. NAKAZATO will have full authority to hire staff and have wide latitude in making decisions about the goals and management of Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc. In addition, as a President, Mr. NAKAZATO will have a very high degree of discretionary authority in Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc.'s day-to-day operations as he is in charge of establishing the goals and policies as well as directing and overseeing the development of Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc.

iv. Whether the Beneficiary will receive only general supervision or direction from higher level executives, the board of directors, or stockholders

The Beneficiary will be the highest rank officer in the company with the Vice President and the Administrative Associate working below him.

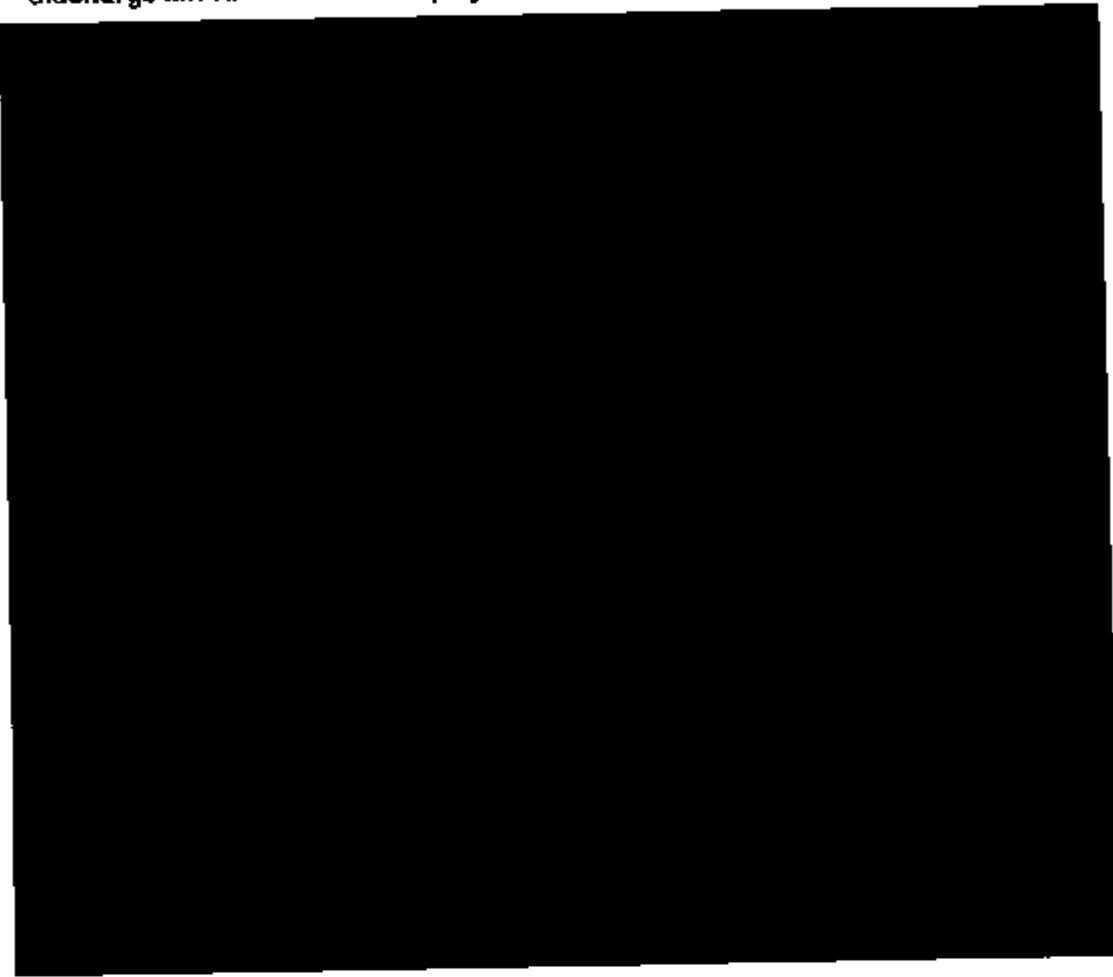

In addition to the above, the experience/skill set requirements for Okinawa Prefecture DC Office, Inc.'s President are as follows: (1) Minimum of 20 years of extensive work experience in Public Administration including International Affairs and Exchanges; (2) Extensive work experience in managing communication between departments within Okinawa Prefectural Government and the Executive Office of the Governor; (3) Knowledge regarding the Regional Security Policy and Political Affairs regarding the U.S. military bases in Asia; and (4) Ability to maintain a high level of confidentiality while handling sensitive information.
